

Resources Mentioned in Literacy Talks

Season 7 Episode 4

Bridging the Gap: From Three Cueing to Structured Literacy

Scientific Research and Classroom Practice

"Scientific Research and Classroom Practice: How Structured Literacy Spans the Divide" - Article by Margaret Goldberg and Reid Lyon

Key Researchers and Their Work

Claude Goldenberg - Research on Literacy and Bilingual Education
Stanford University Profile: Claude Goldenberg

Reid Lyon - Research on Reading First and No Child Left Behind
Related Publications: National Institute of Child Health and Human Development \(NICHD\)

Podcasts and Reports

Emily Hanford's Podcast - "Sold a Story"
Explores the history of reading instruction and the impact of three-cueing.

The National Reading Panel Report
A foundational document on evidence-based reading instruction.
Full Report: National Institute for Literacy

Phonics and Structured Literacy Research

Louisa Moats - Research on Phonics and Structured Literacy
"Speech to Print" and other works by Louisa Moats.
Website: Reading Rockets

Literacy Organizations and Projects

The Reading League

Organization promoting evidence-based reading instruction.

Website: The Reading League

The Right to Read Project - Blog by Margaret Goldberg

Focuses on improving literacy education.

Website: The Right to Read Project

Lunch & Lit - Weekly Discussion Group with Margaret Goldberg

Educators and researchers discuss reading science.

Website: Right to Read Project

Research Collaborations

The Sail Lab - Massachusetts General Hospital

Research collaboration with Tiffany Hogan.

Website: The SAiL Literacy Lab

Conferences and Presentations

Big Sky Literacy Conference - Presentation by Dr. Tiffany Hogan

Focus on implementation science in literacy education.